Orchardist Faints on Ladder and Falls Fifty Feet to Death

Harry B. Keen was instantly killed last Monday by falling 50 feet into the bottom of the pit of a well sunk for irrigating purposes. The back of his head struck first and was badly crushed. The accident occurred on what is known as the Morrison place, on Moorpark avenue.

Keen had been working in the bottom of the pit and was ascending the ladder from the hole in the ground, when he was overcome by a fit of dizziness, to which he was subject. He called for assistance as his hold on the rounds of the ladder loosened and then plunged backwards to his death. His cry for help was heard by his engineer, a man named Freitas, but the latter was unable to reach the orchardist in time to save his life.

The body was removed from the pit by the Coroner with the assistance of Deputy Sheriffs.

Local and Personal

See J. H. Neff for your nursery stock. Leave your orders with J. H. Neff for your fruit trees.

J. G. Burns is suffering from an attack of the grip.

Judge Farley has been on the sick list the past week.

The old Alamo society held a reunion last Saturday evening.

Miss Vera Fablinger was down from the City for a few hours visit last Wednesday.

The Christian Endeavorers will hold a social and watch night service at the church tomorrow night.

David Dick, the little two-year-old son of the editor has been quite sick since Monday night, but is somewhat better today.

Mr. and Mrs. George Segress and Miss Edna Beardsley are spending the Christmas holidays at the Shaw ranch on Johnson avenue.

Roy Wright, of Pacific Grove, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wright, who reside three miles southeast of Campbell.

The Christian Endeavor social and watch night service planned for Saturday night has been postponed, on account of the death of Mrs. Jones.

The Mizpah class banquet and reception planned for Saturday night at the Methodist church will be postponed, in consideration of the death of Mrs. Jones.

Rev. W. L. Beacock left this week for North San Juan where he will resume work in the Methodist ministry. He expected to go last week but was detained because of a kick in the stomach by a horse.

The Mizpah class of the Methodist Sunday school will entertain at the church Saturday evening. There will be a "feast" at eight o'clock, followed by toasts, music and a general good time, about sixty invitations were sent out.

Mr. Charles Beardsley came from Oakland on Sunday, to spend Christmas with his relatives here and attend the family reunion of the Fleming, Beardsley, Shaw and Allen families, which was held at the home of H. C. Fleming, on Bird ave., in the Willows.

The primary department of the Congregational Sunday school has added two fine new tables to their equipment. They contain numerous private drawers, one for each pupil. The tables were purchased with the proceeds of the Thanksgiving entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Gilman attended the family dinner and Christmas celebration at the home of his nephew, Geo. D. Gilman, in The Willows last Monday. There were about twenty-five present. Mr. and Mrs. Gilman will entertain some of their relatives here next Monday.

Prohibition in Maine
So many persons permit themselves, without examination of the facts, to be persuaded that prohibition in Maine is a failure, that the following statistics will have a steadying influence:

1. There are more schools in proportion to the population in Maine and more teachers in proportion to the pupils than in any other state of the Union.

2. Compare Boston, Mass., under license, with Portland, Me., under prohibition:
(a) Boston has 426 arrests; Portland eighty-four for drunkenness for every ten thousand of the population.
(b) Boston pays $3.00, Portland $1.05 per capita to police the city.
(c) Boston pays twenty-nine cents, Portland two cents for jails.

3. Massachusetts has thirty-three criminals, Maine thirteen in the penitentiary for every ten thousand of population.

4. Massachusetts has twenty-eight insane; Maine less than fourteen, for every ten thousand of the population.

5. Massachusetts has nineteen in the poorhouse, Maine sixteen for every ten thousand of the population.

6. Massachusetts has a death rate three times greater than Maine.

7. Compare prohibition Maine and licensed Pennsylvania, and we find Maine has about $100 in savings banks for every inhabitant, while Pennsylvania, the greatest license state in the Union, has about $16.

According to government statistics, the amount of liquor sold in fifty illegal places in the state of Maine is not equal to the amount of liquor sold in one average saloon in a license state.

Prohibition for Maine means less drunkenness, less poverty, less criminality—greater economic and moral benefit.—Epworth Herald.

At the Churches

Christmas Exercises at the Congregational Church

The Sunday School exercises at the Congregational church last Friday night were pronounced by all to be "The Best Yet." It was held that last year was the high water mark, but this year equalled and indeed went a little better those of a year ago. In fact one gentleman who dropped in to see the exercises said afterwards that he had seen Christmas exercises of many kinds during many years, but he thought these were by far the best he had ever seen anywhere. Great credit is due the efficient committee who had it in charge. There were recitations and songs by the primary department, a reading by Miss Palmer from Van Dyke, the Christmas lesson, "The Story of the Other Shepherd" by the Pastor, but the main thing was a magnificent series of tableaux depicting the Christmas. There were four Christmas trees, arranged in a circle, which could be opened, and which formed a background for the tableaux, various colored electric lights were used giving a beautiful effect. The tableaux were as follows—

1st—The Star only. No light.
2nd—Shepherds and Angel—Red light.
3rd—Manger scene—Blue light.
4th—Wise Men and Star—White light.
5th—Wise Men offer gifts—Blue light.
6th—"Love"—No light but "Love."

Introduction of Santa Claus.
The church was crowded to the doors with a most appreciative audience. Santa Claus delighted the children after the formal programs.

A crowded house enjoyed an excellent service at the Congregational church last Sunday evening when the pastor depicted "The Story of the Christ Child," or the Christmas story told by the great artists, with fifty splendid stereopticon views. They were divided into five groups as follows: The Annunciation, the Shepherds, the Magi, the Flight into Egypt and the Return to Nazareth.

Christmas at the Methodist Church
An unusually happy time was experienced by the Methodist people during their Christmas festivities this year. On Friday night the children of the Sunday school gave a sweet and beautiful Cantata entitled "Waiting for Santa Claus," which was much enjoyed by everybody. The little folks entered into the occasion with a spirit and sang with lustre that is not known at any other time of the year. There were two handsome trees and a good natured Santa Claus.

Sunday morning there was some good music and a Christmas sermon by the pastor.

In the evening, from 6 to 7 o'clock, a vesper service was held. The meeting was led by Miss Ernestine Kennedy, president of the League. Readings on Christmas topics from prominent authors were a feature of the meeting. Miss Zena Kennedy sang a solo.

Congregational Church Notice
New Year's Services both morning and evening. In the morning, the first service in the New year, will be Communion and Reception of new members, with a short New Year's Message by the Pastor. In the evening there will be a responsive New Year's Service, with a message on "How to Carry over our Lessons." In the morning the Pastor will tell the boys and girls a New Year's Story on How the Robin Red-breast got his red feathers.

All who have no Church home are cordially invited to worship with us. You will find our meetings Bright, Brief and Brotherly.

GEO. E. ATKINSON, Pastor.

A NEW YEAR'S FEAST
Now that is what all will get who attend the Methodist Sunday School on New Year's morning, and the Feast will commence at 9:40 sharp. The new banter system will commence then and it will mean something for the class that wins the banner under the new system. The opening exercises will be held up stairs in the main assembly room and a special program is arranged for the New Year's morning. We will listen to the following program if "WE" get there on time. So try, try.

The song of greeting, by School.
Invocation.
Piano Duet, Miss Billings and Miss Woodward.
March by Primary Department.
The Birthday Visitor, Laura Blaine.
Recitation, Miss Phebe Farley.
Class assembly with music.
The Re-Call.
Vocal Solo, Frank Lewis.
Closing Reports.

Death of Mrs. Jones

The entire community was greatly shocked this morning to learn of the sudden death of one of our best loved and most highly esteemed women, Mrs. E. Jones. Last Wednesday Mrs. Jones was operated on at the Belvedere Hospital, San Jose, and was getting along very nicely until 5:20 o'clock this morning when a sudden stroke of apoplexy took her away. The remains will be brought to the home at 10 o'clock Monday morning, where friends can see them. The funeral services will be held at the Congregational church at 1:30 o'clock. The casket will not be opened at the church.

COAST HAPS AND MISHAPS OF THE WEEK

Recent Occurrences Along the Pacific Slope Related in Brief Items.

Paragraphs Selected With a View to Giving Busy Readers the News in a Nutshell.

San Jose.—Attorney C. T. Bird died after a brief illness of pneumonia. He leaves a widow and family.

Whittier.—Frank Chance, the leader of the Chicago Cubs, bought another orange grove six miles from here. He paid $25,000 for the orchard.

Los Angeles.—C. A. Jewel, aged 25, an automobile dealer, who had his head crushed when his machine collided with a bakery wagon, died at the hospital to which he was taken.

San Francisco.—Ramon Comas was arrested and is held in detinue pending the investigation of the larceny of $500 from Francisco Ramono a week ago. The money was stolen from his trunk.

San Mateo.—While her 12 year old daughter, loitered to play with other children, Mrs. Josephine Muller killed herself at her home. The woman, who was 40 years old, feared insanity and chose death rather than a madhouse.

Los Angeles.—Potatoes will be in the luxury class here before the winter is over, according to a prominent jobber. The reason given for this is a shortage of crops in the sections upon which southern California draws for its supply.

Sacramento.—The board of directors of the State Agricultural society met as a legislative committee to draft bills asking for appropriations from the legislature, and estimated that the amount needed to secure the proper improvements for next year would be $300,000.

Seattle (Wash.).—The trial of cases against Charles F. Munday, Earl F. Seigley and Archie M. Shields, indicted on charges of conspiracy to defraud the Government out of valuable Alaska coal lands, was continued in the United States District Court from January 3d to March 26th.

Willows.—Reports are coming in to the effect that the grain crop in Tehama county shows a falling off of 50 per cent. This does not mean that Tehama county had a poor crop, it simply means that other things are now being raised where once wheat was king. The same holds true in Glenn county.

Seattle.—One man is dead, another is dying in the City Hospital, and four others are seriously ill of beri beri, which broke out on the British steamship Beachy early this week. When Arsal Ali, a Hindoo sailor, died on Tuesday night, an investigation resulted in the removal of Inkut Ali, another Hindoo, to the Municipal Hospital.

El Centro Cal.—Four masked men, believed to be negroes, entered the camp of nine Hindus on J. M. Edmund's ranch south of here last night, and at the point of revolvers robbed the camp of $240 in cash and several silver medals carried by the men. One of the robbers dropped his mask near the tent. It was made of green cloth from a pool table cover. The sheriff is searching for the men.

Seattle.—Bert Schuman, alias Herbert Rolason, kidnapper of eleven year-old Davy Wellman, was found guilty by a jury in the Superior Court. After the verdict had been returned Schuman admitted that he had previously served a term in the penitentiary for the same offense, and the Court adjudged him a habitual criminal and pronounced an indeterminate sentence of from twenty to forty years in the Walla Walla Penitentiary.

Sacramento.—Caught in the act of smuggling cocaine to his brother, a convict in Folsom Prison, Christy Rossi, arrested by Warden Reilly and brought to this city to face a charge which may land him in a cell, was found guilty by a jury of robbing his brother, Joe Rossi. For robbing his brother of goods valued at thousands of dollars, Rossi, together with other members of a gang, was sent to Folsom for a twenty-five-year term. In a drug fiend, and in response to an appeal, his brother attempted to smuggle him a package of the drug.

THREE HUNDRED MINERS DIE IN MINE EXPLOSION

Season of Merry Yuletide Turned Into
Days and Nights of Mourning

Bolton, England.—More than 300 men lost their lives in the explosion in the Little Hulton colliery of the Hulton Colliery Company, located a short distance from this city. The explosion occurred soon after the miners had entered the pit. Its force was terrific, and later investigations showed that the lower passages had been blocked. Heroic efforts were made by rescue parties all day, but a fire which followed the explosion prevented the rescuers from penetrating beyond 400 yards into the workings. No explanation is given as to the cause of the explosion, which completely wrecked the mine.

Ten bodies which were recovered were lying close to the mouth of the pit. In each case death was due to asphyxiation. One of the eight miners who escaped said the force of the explosion was such that the limbs of many were blown off. This is the second great mine disaster in England this year, an explosion having occurred in the Wellington colliery at Whitehaven, Cumberland, on May 12, in which 136 miners were killed.

Family Estate Mix-up.

Stockton.—Probably one of the most peculiar will contests ever brought to the attention of a court is being heard by Judge Plummer of the Superior Court. Mrs. Undine Hogan, are on one side, and Mrs. Sarah McDermott and her ten-year-old daughter, Genevieve, who the mother claims was acknowledged by Grigsby as his child, are on the other. Mrs. Grigsby admits her husband left her fourteen years ago while they were living in San Francisco, when another woman appeared on the scene and won the affections of her husband. The alleged widow says Grigsby was threatened by a woman he was living with and thus he left his estate to her.

Mrs. Martin in Oakland Court.

After being out for nine hours, the jury trying Mrs. Isabella Martin of Oakland on the charge of dynamiting the house of Superior Judge Frank Ogden in March, 1907, returned a verdict of guilty last night.

Mrs. Martin made no demonstration when the jury filed into court at 11:10 p. m. and the foreman announced the verdict. "It's not a very cheerful Christmas gift," she remarked as she was being led back to her cell. The jury recommended Mrs. Martin to the extreme mercy of the court. Superior Judge W. S. Wells announced that he would pass sentence Wednesday at 9:50 a. m.

Acetylene Gas Explosion.

Dunsmuir.—W. S. McCartney was blown fifteen feet into the air from a locomotive and landed on the ground with fatal injuries as a result of an explosion of an acetylene gas tank he was ordered to repair. He approached the gas tank with a lighted torch, which ignited the escaping gas. McCartney, who was almost over the tank was blown fifteen feet into the air and fell to the floor of the roundhouse.

"A Hint to the Wise."

Seattle.—A bundle containing five sticks of blasting powder was found on the steps of the First Methodist Episcopal church. The pastor of the church, Rev. Adna Leonard, formerly pastor of the Methodist church in Rome, has been active in exposing the alleged corruption of the city government and had recently received letters warning him to desist.

Seventy-nine Cases Dismissed.

Los Angeles.—Cases against seventy-nine men charged with violating the Los Angeles anti-picketing ordinance will not come to trial. The cases were dismissed by Police Judge Frederickson, at the instance of Assistant Prosecutor Sidney Reeve, because many of the witnesses the city had intended to call have left the city.

Cities of Rapid Growth.

Bakersfield.—Figures have been compiled by the Bakersfield Californian which show that the growth of Bakersfield in the last year has been greater than that of any city in the state of twice its size, the number and cost of its dwelling houses almost double that of Pasadena, Stockton, San Jose or Fresno.

High Voltage Wire Responsible.

Los Angeles.—Walter Strong, 19 years old, was killed by a high voltage wire in a power house where he was working. The shock threw him against a dynamo and the flames originated by the short circuit burned all the clothing from his body.

Subjects of National Interest Now Under Discussion

Washington.—All records will be broken when the present House of Representatives scores a total of approximately 35,000 public and private bills introduced up to its close on March 4 next. This is a leap of more than 7,000 over the record established by the last Congress, the Sixtieth. These figures are exclusive of resolutions, which so far in the three sessions of the present Congress have numbered 883 simple resolutions, 278 joint resolutions and 56 concurrent.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Edward R. Wright and Clarence J. Roberts to be Associate Justices of the Supreme Court of New Mexico and Cornelius D. Murane to be United States Judge for the district of Alaska, Division No. 2.

The offer of the United States Government to take the body of Senor Don Anibal Cruz, Chilean Minister to this country, to Chile on an American war ship was formally accepted by Senor Yoacham, Charge d'Affaires of the Chilean Legation.

The contract for supplying the heavy pumping machinery for the naval docks at New York, Bremerton and Pearl Harbor was awarded to the Alberger Pump Company of New York at their bid of $323,000.

In the fifty-fourth Congress, 10,000 bills introduced outdistanced all other records. This was raised by a thousand a little later and four years ago the House files were flooded with 11,000 bills. During the two preceding sessions of this Congress 27,264 bills were presented, and up to today the present session has registered 3,011. A flood of measures probably will be introduced in the few days following the reassembling of Congress on January 5, and then the tide will recede.

Representative Morrison of Indiana has introduced a bill in the House to provide a service pension to Civil war survivors of the navy and marine corps. It is to be paid on the basis of 50 cents each month for every month the survivor served in the Civil war, and it is to be in addition to any disability pension now paid.

The contract for building the 27,000-ton battleship Texas for $5,830,000 was awarded to the Newport News Shipbuilding Company, the lowest bidder.

The bill to organize the naval militia on a basis similar to that prescribed for the national guard of the several States was favorably acted upon by the House committee on naval affairs. The bill was reported back to the House with a recommendation for its passage.

California postmasters appointed: Hornbrook, Siskiyou county, Davis C. Earhart, vice A. E. Coyle, removed; Santee, San Diego county, Franklin B. Holder, vice F. A. Barrett, resigned.

Approximately 9280 acres of land in Oregon and 1600 acres in New Mexico recently have been designated by Secretary of the Interior Ballinger under the provisions of the enlarged homestead act, as not being susceptible of successful irrigation. These changes bring the total of New Mexico designations to date to 15,952,029; Oregon, 11,090,320.

The Senate Committee on Interstate Commerce decided to report favorably to the Senate the names of C. C. McChord of Kentucky and B. H. Meyer of Wisconsin to be members of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Tons of Red-Hot Bricks Tumble on Twenty-Six Firemen

Chicago.—A fire that started early Thursday morning caused the death of the Fire Chief of this city, his assistant and twenty-four other firemen.

The fire began in a high beef warehouse and the high winds swept the flames into the packing plants of the Union stock yards. The sweep of the flames was directly towards the vast storehouse containing millions of dollars' worth of finished packing house products. A general alarm was sent in by the first company arriving on the scene and this was followed at intervals of only a few minutes by successive alarms, which brought forty-five engines, twenty hose trucks and a reserve force of 200 firemen to take the place of exhausted fire fighters.

The great loss of life, while primarily due to the falling walls, is said to-night to be due to insufficient water pressure. Firemen first on the scene say that a few well-directed streams would have conquered the flames early, but the water only trickled through the hose. Coroner Hoffman has sworn in a jury to determine whether any person was to blame for the lack of proper pressure.

At a time when the firemen were exerting every effort, there came the roar of an explosion from somewhere inside the furnace. The east wall puffed out like a swollen cheek, tottered as if shaken by an earthquake and crumpled up like a house of cards.

Tons of red-hot bricks, mighty beams and girders tumbled down on the canopy. In much less time than it takes to tell it the canopy above and the floor of the leading platform became splintered temporarily coffins of the helmeted fire fighters.

Throughout the day the vicinity of the fire was thronged with relatives and friends, all anxious for news of some loved one. Wives, mothers, children, sweethearts were there, and scenes too pitiful to relate were enacted. Closely cordoned, the police held in check the crowd or tenderly led away some shrieking woman madened by her loss.

More White People Needed for Island of Hawaii

San Francisco.—To stimulate the immigration of thrifty European home-seekers, the Department of Commerce and Labor of the Hawaiian Islands will charter a steamer to carry immigrants from Salina Cruz to Honolulu free of charge. The other purpose of the department is to discourage the influx of Asiatics.

Dr. V. S. Clark, who has charge of the Territorial Bureau of Immigration, arrived here on the steamer Sierra, and during his visit to this city will proceed to make arrangements to secure the vessel needed. Clark claims that under present conditions it is next to impossible to secure the class of immigrants needed on the islands.

"We, in Hawaii, believe," said Clark, "that the completion of the Panama Canal will be the making of Hawaii and the proposition now to be undertaken simply means that we are taking the initiative and preparing for the future of a country that needs but fair development and a few more people of thrift and industry to make it one of the most prosperous places under the American flag."

Clark also said that Chief Immigration Commissioner Daniel Keefe, now in the islands, is arranging a system whereby the influx of Asiatic paupers and undesirables into the Pacific Coast States can be much restricted.

The Controller of the Currency has received the application of F. W. Fokett, John Sutton, M. N. Breckenridge, W. L. Brown and J. V. Enloe to organize the First National Bank of Concord, Cal., with a capital of $25,000.

Committee Reports Benefit of Explosion Sufferers

Los Angeles.—The joint committee in charge of the distribution of the relief fund contributed to the aid of the relatives of the victims of the destruction of the building of the Los Angeles Times on the morning of October 1st, made a final report to the Mayor, showing the disbursement of $76,430.39.

Of this sum $4200 was paid out for temporary relief, twenty-one persons receiving an advance of $200 each;

$34,718.37 was paid to sixteen widows and parents, in sums running from $997.65 to $2992.96. Dependent parents received a total of $6484.74 in five sums ranging from $498.82 to $1995.31, and sixteen minor children received a total of $31,027.28.

The smallest sum paid to a minor child was $997.65, while Edward A. Jordan, 1 year old, received $2992.96, and the same amount was set aside for a child of Churchill Harvey Elder, as yet unborn.

LINES OF LEAST RESISTANCE

Fallacious Philosophy Upon Which Most Parents Act in Training Children.

Many youths are trained along the lines of least resistance. Their careers are watched so that they may not run against obstacles and disappointments. They get all the money, clothes, idling, pleasures they want, without making a single effort to possess them. "We want John to have a good time now, for after awhile he may not have it," is the philosophy upon which many parents act.

It is great folly. The boy who is put on the lines of least resistance and meets with few if any adversities, gathers little strength of mind or character. There is no gliding forward. There is no step in advance that does not involve an effort. The boy whose path is made smooth and easy for him is like the pupil in school who studies arithmetic with a key. He got his lessons, but he died, at last, in an infirmary.

Just mark it down, oh rich and loving parent, that your boy, raised in ease and comfort and with every advantage ready at hand, provided by your bounty, will not amount to a h... of beans out in the world, where heroism is in demand and true worth is the test of manhood.

It is unfortunate for any boy not to have a struggle during the formation period of life, and a boy with a resolution to make his way is far better off than a boy with money to buy it. Stick a pin right there.

OLD AGE IS INEXORABLE

Men Find It Out When They Attempt to Frisk About in Boy Fashion.

If you ever doubt that you're growing old and sedate, you fathers, just take the kids out into the woods and see the difference between yourself of today and yesterday.

You see them plunging about with whoops of joy, and generally living gladly.

And you—well, when you try to sit down your knees creak, and the leaves beneath you don't seem as they once did.

The golden sunshine filters through the trees; the rustle of small living things resounds through the woods; the perfume of rich ripening things floats to you, and within you something is struggling to break loose.

You don't know just what it is, but it hurts. You are too old now to run and whoop and carry on like those kids. It would be beneath your dignity, but something within you seems calling to you, and your old body can't respond.

You want to yell and run—that is, you believe you do, but it's no use. Something is holding you back.

So there you sit and watch the children playing, and their happiness is as once yours was.

And it makes the heart ache to think of it—some day they will be even as you—longing to break, loose into joy born of the autumn, but held back. Held back by something that we call old age.

Women Divers in Japan.

Among the many different methods employed in Japan for pearl fishing none is more interesting than that employed by the women divers who obtain the pearl oysters. Pearl fishing is conducted mainly by men divers in Australia and India and other countries, but in the region about Ago Bay, in the province of Shima, as well as in other parts of the country, women are employed in diving. The Mikimoto pearl farms lie at a depth of from five to thirty fathoms, with an average of ten fathoms. The women dive to the bottom without any special apparatus, and retain their breath while they remain under the water. They stay under the surface from one to three minutes. When they are chilled they return to the shore, and warm themselves at fires built in huts especially for the purpose, and then return and resume their work.

Coal Heaver Gentleman.

In the corner of the cross-town car, by the door, sat a coal heaver. He was a small man, and the outside of him was exceedingly dirty, even for a coal heaver. Clothes and hat were covered with an all-pervading black dust, which upon his face and hands the rains had streaked in muddy lines. His eyes were heavy and his back bent. Alone out of that chivalrous company he rose and with his crumpled hat in his hand gave his seat to the lady of certain age. It was another coal heaver who turned one of the finest compliments to a woman in the English language as he stood transfixed before the beauty of Mme. Recamier. "Lady, I could light my pipe at your eyes," said that gallant and impassioned coal heaver.

The Way of Life.

It is being said of an elderly man in business in Atchison: "He can't stand punishment as he formerly could." And there is punishment to be endured in making a liv'g; don't forget it. Look over your own experience and you will detect punishment every hour of the day. If it isn't at home it is on the street or on the road. How many ways there are to punish a man who tries his best to get along and behave himself! And after a man gets old it is more evident every year that the poor fellow can't stand punishment as he could when he was younger.

Paris.—The Senate has approved a bill accepting Greenwich time as the standard time for France.

Irwin, Pa.—Hurled 90 feet into a ravine when a trolley car struck their team, Paul H. Grubb, 19 years old, was instantly killed, and Margaret Frey, 18 years old, was seriously injured.

Baltimore.—The body of Lieutenant Edward J. Donohue of the United States revenue cutter Apache was found in the waters of the upper harbor. He had been missing since Saturday night.

Jackson, Miss.—Members of the crew of the British steamer Horos, which arrived at Gulfport harbor, report sighting the wreck of Walter Wellman's airship two hundred miles east of the Bahama islands, shortly before sundown December 9th.

Syracuse, N. Y.—Pontiac Clothilde de Keli, a Holstein-Friesian cow, owned by Stevens Brothers of Liverpool, has broken the world's seven-day butter record, producing 37.28 pounds. Since 1908 the record has been 35.55 pounds, held by Grace Fayne II, Homestead.

Kansas City.—All the horses of Kansas City were invited, through their owners, to attend a Christmas dinner at 1311 Baltimore avenue. The Humane Society chose a place for serving the dinner. Each horse received a large sack of oats and hay enough to make him feel fat.

Paris.—By flying 322 miles without alighting, Aviator Legagneux broke the world's record for long-distance sustained flight. Legagneux's time was five hours and 59 minutes. Unless this record is beaten by January 1st, Legagneux will win the Michelin Cup, valued at $4000. Legagneux used a Blériot monoplane.

London.—Burglars who killed two policemen in a pistol battle with five officers were tunneling to a vault in a jewelry store containing $100,000. The boring was nearly completed when a policeman discovered it and summoned help. In the fatal fight that followed the robbers escaped. Fifty detectives are seeking the desperadoes.

Copenhagen.—Former Minister of Justice Alberti, the revelation of whose banking frauds in the fall of 1908 scandalized the country, was sentenced to eight years' penal servitude. Alberti suffered a physical collapse in March, 1909, while awaiting trial and was removed to a hospital, where he remained until sufficiently restored to face his accusers.

Montreal.—In a barrel marked and consigned as poultry the body of an elderly, unidentified man was found in the storeroom of the Canada Cold Storage Company here by John Morant, a claim clerk of the Grand Trunk Railway. The barrel was consigned to a janitor, Bishops College, Montreal, and with the exception of the three initials "J. C. D." it contained no mark.

New York.—The municipal explosion commission, which has investigated the disastrous explosion at the Grand Central station, which cost ten lives, reported to Fire Commissioner Waldo that after an inspection of the gas system "this commission intimated to the officers of the railroad that it will be necessary for them to arrange to gas all cars at some point outside the borough of Manhattan."

New Orleans.—The United States revenue cutter Davis again anchored alongside the steamer Hornet and special customs inspectors were placed on shore opposite the Hornet's anchorage with instructions to report promptly any activities observed in connection with her preparations for sailing, as it is thought the vessel is designing to take part in the revolution in Honduras. After a thorough search the vessel departed.

South Bethlehem, Pa.—For ten years Miss Cecilia Delp of Hellertown has had a bullet in her head which could not be located until a few days ago, when Dr. Lapaz of Philadelphia found its whereabouts. Miss Delp was accidentally shot by her brother ten years ago, and since that time has suffered much with convulsions. Six operations failed to reveal the whereabouts of the bullet. The bullet will finally be removed on January 11th next, which will be the birthday anniversary of the girl.

Knees Became Stiff

Five Years of Severe Rheumatism
The cure of Henry J. Goldstein, 14 Barton Street, Boston, Mass., is another victory by Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine has succeeded in many cases where others have utterly failed. Mr. Goldstein says: "I suffered from rheumatism five years, it kept me from business and caused excruciating pain. My knees would become as stiff as steel. I tried many medicines without relief, then took Hood's Sarsaparilla, soon felt much better, and now consider myself entirely cured. I recommend Hood's." The Right to Die.
The man who has killed himself on Monday would on Saturday have wanted to live; but one only kills one's self once. Man's life is made up of past, present and future; so life must be a burden to him, if not for the past, the present and the future at least for the present and the future. If it is only a burden for the present he is sacrificing the future. The evils of one day do not authorize him to sacrifice the life that is ahead of him. Only the man whose life is unhappy and who could have the certainty—which is impossible—that it will always be so, and that conditions and desires will never change, either through modification of circumstances and situations or through habit and the lapse of time—which again is impossible—only this man would have the right to kill himself.—Napoleon Bonaparte.

A Builder of Homes.
At a dinner given by the agricultural publishers of America in Chicago a few weeks ago, one of the principal speakers was Prof. Hugh G. Van Pelt, the Iowa dairy expert, who took for his subject "The Economic Value of Dairy Farming." He summed up the whole proposition at the close of a splendid address in these words: "To recapitulate, the dairy cow is a source of large, regular and sure profits, a conservator and restorer of soil fertility and a builder of homes."—Town and Country Journal.

Curious Oath.
In the second oath administered to a man about to take his seat in the supreme court of the United States he swears among other things, "to do equal right to the poor and to the rich." It has been in the oaths from the beginning of the government, and must have been fashioned for the express purpose of assuring the poor that they should have justice in the highest tribunal of the land. The terms used are good plain English and easily understood.

Cock Fighting in Mexico.
In the smaller towns and villages of Mexico the cock fight still holds its own in the hearts of the populace, and no fair or public festival is complete without its cock-pit, which is generally well advertised and made one of the attractions of the festival. At these festivals, as in the olden days, betting is still a feature of the sport, and often much money changes hands.

Sweden's Church Boat.
The church boat is a popular institution in Sweden. It brings families to service from the farms around Lake Siljan to Leksand. The water route is the nearest and most convenient, and so the big boat goes from farm to farm along the shore picking up the church-goers, who later return by the same route.—Wide World Magazine.

Internals of Ocean Greyhound.
In a big Atlantic liner there are over one thousand tons of piping of various kinds. The boiler tubes if placed end to end would stretch about ten miles, the condenser-tubes over twenty-five miles. The condensers pump up more than fifty thousand tons of water a day, and the furnaces consume about eight million cubic feet of air per hour. No fewer than 50,000 separate pieces of steel are used in the main structure of the ship.

The Mother-Friend.
"It's no good explaining to you, mother, for you wouldn't understand," said a little girl patiently to her mother, when the latter was asking why and wherefore. Every mother can understand if she tries, and become a privileged member of the children's kingdom without losing any of her authority and dignity as a parent, and the mother-friend is generally adored by her own as well as other people's little ones.

Lord Brougham's Oratory.
We have no orator in the least like Lord Brougham since the close of Brougham's public career. Everything that nature could do, so far as appearance, manner and voice were concerned, she had done to prevent him from being a great orator; and yet, a great orator he undoubtedly was. I wonder what the house of lords just now would think of a peer who gesticulated and bellowed as Brougham was in the habit of doing. But it was impossible to listen to Brougham and not be carried away by the force of his intellect, by his torrent of words, by the sudden whirl and eddy of his rapid illustrations, and by the longer and shorter stretches of quietude and repose into which his argument occasionally flowed.—From Justin McCarthy's Reminiscences.

Protect the Hay.
If you have saved a fine crop of hay—which, by the way, is going to be scarce this year—and have no room for it in the barn, better invest in some canvas stack covers. They will pay for themselves in one or two seasons when hay is high. Any farmer who has an abundance of corn and roughage can make money by buying stock mules in the large markets and feeding them over winter. They should be allowed to run loose in roomy barns or sheds and never confined in stalls as are horses.

The Small Farm.
The small farm is the hope of the country. Small farms, well tilled, mean large barns well filled. We need an intensified agriculture to increase our yield and make farms more profitable. There are a few men with enough executive ability to manage a large farm profitably, but the average man would succeed better upon a small farm. Profits are usually proportional to the acreage yield.

It is poor policy to spend the time during the bright fall days sawing wood for next summer. That is a good job for stormy days in the shelter of the wood house.

Atrociously Cruel Sport.
Some people have queer ideas of sport. In Vale of Leven it seems to be considered good fun to tie a live rat to the foot of a seagull and allow the pair to fight for the mastery. One poor bird was found hopping near the water's edge the other day hitched to a carcass which must have been at least six weeks old.—London Mail.

Fresh Air in Winter

In winter, it is hard to get fresh air in certain rooms. Some rooms in a house are usually colder than others, and if you open the windows it is hard again to heat the room properly. If you keep the windows closed you don't get fresh air; if you keep them open you cannot quickly reheat the room. The

OIL-HEATER

Absolutely smokeless and odorless solves the difficulty. You can leave the windows in a room open all day in winter, and when you close them apply a match to a Perfection Oil Heater and heat the room to any temperature you desire in a few minutes.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It burns for nine hours. It has a cool handle and a damper top. It has an automatic locking flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be quickly cleaned. An indicator always shows amount of oil in the font.

The filler-cap does not need to be screwed down. It is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking. The Perfection Oil Heater is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

Neat Rebuke.
The anecdote is still told in Vermont of the reply which Mrs. Chittenden, the governor's wife, made to some squeamish visitors who objected to meeting the farmhands at dinner. "We usually all dine together," said the first lady of Vermont, "but I really think there should be two tables set—the first for the farmhands, because they have been working very hard and must be very hungry, and the second for the rest of us, who can very well wait."

Cautious in His Answer.

Practical Methods of Approach Suggested for Teaching Agriculture in Schools

By EDWARD HYATT, Superintendent of Public Instruction

III. BOYS' AND GIRLS' AGRICULTURAL CLUBS

It is the experience of other States that the most efficient approach to agriculture in the schools is by the organization of boys' and girls' agricultural clubs. These are formed for some specific and tangible purpose, as a competition under certain rules in the growing of wheat, or potatoes, or cotton, the raising of poultry, or gardens, the taking of bread, the canning of fruit. Wonderful work is being done in this way by some of the Eastern States.

New York is the pioneer. Under the direction of Cornell University this State began work in 1898. It now has a membership of 75,000 boys and girls in its clubs, and has for its official organ the Cornell Rural School Leaflet, that goes to 7,000 teachers.

Nebraska began this work in 1905, devoting its chief energy to the growing and the cooking of corn, under directions and recipes sent out from the state university. In the fall they have local prize-winning contests in the townships, then in the counties, and finally for the State, with a grand "corn banquet," bringing together 2,000 to 3,000 boys and girls from all over the commonwealth.

The county superintendents of Winnebago County, Illinois, and Keokuk County, Iowa, have made national reputations in this work. Texas and Georgia are at it, too, and more than twenty other States.

An agricultural club may be organized in a single California school, and may do enthusiastic work. It is larger and better for a whole county to undertake it. Ambitious county superintendents of schools in the rural regions have an inspiring opportunity for usefulness in this field. There should be some means provided for public displays of the results of competitions. There should be some periodical to knit the organization together.

There should be some leader who can travel about among the different clubs, encouraging them and telling them what their fellows are doing. Doubtless the time will come when the superintendents and teachers of agricultural counties will be chosen for their enthusiasm and skill in this very kind of work. Not one in California has as yet taken it up. There is a fascinating field lying ready, a field for fame and glory as well as for highest service to the State. Farmers' Bulletin No. 385 of the United States Department of Agriculture gives the latest and best information about the movement in a large way.

Mr. W. G. Bohannon, editor of the Town and Country Journal, 1005 Market street, San Francisco, is much interested in this phase of agricultural education, and offers to help it on by every means in his power. Particularly, he writes a formal letter, offering two pages of space per month in his agricultural journal to the schools of the State for a period of four years. He proposes to organize a juvenile agricultural department in his December issue, print essays from the club members, conduct correspondence with them, offer prizes, and in other ways help the thing along. This offer represents a good many thousand dollars.

Some kind of a publication regularly devoted to the enterprise is a necessity for any general success. It will be a long time before the State can undertake the publication of such a periodical. Superintendents and teachers, in preparation for the organization of these clubs, may well get in touch with this journal and use its kindly proffer to the full extent as a means of communication and a source of enthusiasm.

The Sunnyvale Standard, owned and edited by W. K. Roberts, has been leased by T. R. Needham, late of Esmeralda county, Nevada. The latter gentleman is said to be a practical printer, a good writer and an all-around enterprising man. The Standard office has a good cylinder press and a complete modern equipment throughout, and it is expected that Mr. Needham will enlarge and improve the paper. While Sunnyvale is many times the size of Campbell, yet its newspaper is in the same class with the Press, a six-column folio with "patent insides."

Peddlers are getting to be a nuisance in Campbell. Hardly a day goes by without having one's front door kicked in by some audacious, bald-faced, rattle-tongued individual who knows more about what you need and want than you ever care to know. When Campbell becomes an incorporated town we can make these fellows pay a license and thus get some returns for our money. The person who buys their goods usually gets an article he doesn't need or which is much inferior to something that could be purchased of the local merchant.

After eleven months at the wheel of the Gilroy Gazette, L. C. McKenney has sold out to J. C. Crone and T. H. Burland. Within that time the paper changed to all-at-home print; patent medicine caricatures were displaced by advertisements of live local merchants; and, further, so Mr. Mc says, the paper was a financial success.

Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn;
If you don't it won't be blown.
The people won't flock
To buy your stock
If you never make it known.

So, Little Boy Blue, come blow your horn:
It's the proper business caper,
And the very best way
To make it pay
Is to blow it through this paper.

A lie travels by aeroplane, while truth trudges along with lagging step, and yet it finally arrives.

The boaster's story of his life is too much like the historical novel, —one part truth to three parts fiction.

At last we have something to be really thankful for. Fashion has decreed that the "rampant rat" and the "bulging bun" must go.

It will require more than one coat of whitewash to renovate some politicians. Indeed, some of them need a disinfectant added to the lime.

Records of American hustle are said to be found in many insane asylums of the country. We don't hear of many patients being taken out of Campbell, especially during the winter season.

J. D. Sawyer and E. R. Kennedy are among the five delegates elected by the County Promotion Association to attend the State Convention of County Boosters to be held in Berkeley, January 6 and 7. These two men are good boosters and their influence is being felt throughout the county.

State Boosters Meeting

Key Route Inn, Oakland, Jan. 6, 1911
Development of Our State's Resources Will Be Theme

Definite arrangements have been made for the programme of the Semi-Annual Counties Committee Meeting of the California Development Board, Oakland, January 6th and 7th. The response from the various county organizations throughout the State indicate that the attendance will be large.

There seems to be a revival of the boosting spirit in many of the counties that have apparently been dormant of late, and the delegates from those sections are receiving instructions to attend the various addresses, to take part in the discussion of the topical questions so that on their return they will be brimming over with ideas on what is being done in other counties, in the matter of promotion.

The Counties Meeting of the past have been very useful in bringing about a uniformity of policy, and a co-ordination of efforts, among the many organizations in this State.

The organizations of more recent origin can learn at that time the methods by which they can make use of the facilities of the larger organizations, such as the California Development Board.

The programme is one that leaves very little to be desired in the way of speakers and the hospitality of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce, who will be the hosts, is a thing well known. A banquet has been arranged for the evening of the 6th, where the discussion will naturally center on the Panama Exposition feature of development, and such things as Automobile Excursions, trips of both pleasure and informing nature have been fully arranged for.

The programme includes the following men whose reputations need no further comment.
